Board Announces Memorial Brick Sidewalk Campaign

At their May 18 meeting, the Board of Trustees kicked off the planning for the 25th anniversary celebration of the Heymann Historical Society by approving a campaign to install a memorial brick sidewalk at the Church. The Society, formed in December 1981, will celebrate the 25th anniversary in 2006. Specific activities honoring the anniversary will be scheduled and announced at a later date.

The goal of the Trustees is to install a brick sidewalk leading up to the front steps of the church in the summer of 2004. The deteriorating steps will be replaced, and a new handrail and landscaping installed.

HHS members will have the opportunity to purchase a memorial brick for the sidewalk. Each brick will have 3 lines, with 14 spaces each, available for engraving. The Board set a price of $50 for HHS members to purchase and engrave each brick. The proceeds from the sale of the memorial bricks will be used to support ongoing maintenance of the Church.

The Board is excited about this campaign and the significant upgrade the memorial brick sidewalk will provide to the church property. The November newsletter will contain an order form for the memorial bricks. If you have any questions about this campaign, please contact any HHS Trustee.

In other news, the Board approved the development of two new gifts for sale: a collector plate series and a Heymann Historical Society afghan “throw”. Jackie Hyman is working on contacting suppliers and collecting the art work and pictures for each type of gift. The goal is to be able to offer these items for purchase in time for the Holidays. Proceeds from the sale support the restoration and maintenance of the Church and Friendship Hall.

Trustees Chase Heyman, Matthew Heyman, and Lou Zorn, members of a committee studying the issue of upgrades to Friendship Hall, were scheduled to meet the week after the Board meeting to further discuss the issue.

These decisions were made at the Board meeting, held on May 18, 2003 at the home of Lou and Norma Zorn, Scheid Road, Sandusky, Ohio. Trustees present included Lou Zorn, David Hyman, Kurt Heyman, Maurice Heyman, Ulrike Gapp, Albert Horn, Matthew Heyman, Elden Plue, Pearl Schwochow, and Chase Heyman. Minutes were recorded by Acting Secretary David Hyman.

From the President

Hello Cousins,

The February 2003 meeting of the Heymann Historical Society Board of Trustees was postponed until May 18th so our newest Board member, Ulrike Gapp from Burschwalbach, Germany, could be present for the meeting. Several of the local cousins joined the Board and their spouses at Zorn Acres for a delicious potluck dinner in honor of Ulrike. She spent about three weeks visiting cousins and touring in the States. We welcomed her to the Board and know she will be a valuable asset for us as she will be a good contact for our European cousins.

The Board decided to proceed with the brick sidewalk project. You will find more information about this in the newsletter (see page 1). There are several maintenance items that need to be addressed at the church including painting the exterior, which is under contract to be completed, and the replacement of the front steps.

A committee of Chase Heyman, Matthew Heyman, and Lou Zorn was formed to investigate the feasibility of adding rest rooms, storage area including electrical and plumbing. The Committee met the week after the full board meeting, and determined that we need to proceed with caution so that we do not add excessively to the ongoing expenses we have with maintaining the existing property. At the present time, the Friendship Hall is only used for the annual reunion on the first Sunday in August of every year. We welcome your comments on this issue and appreciate your continued support.

Your cousin, Lou Zorn, President.

Hunt's Corners Church

A National Historic District
Property

First organized on August 14, 1858 as the German Evangelical Reformed Church, the congregation moved into a newly built Hunt's Corners Church building in 1866. In 1982 the remaining members of the congregation transferred the deed to the Heymann Historical Society to allow for preservation of the building. On September 2, 1993 the Hunt's Corners district was added to the National Register of Historic Places by the National Park Service, United States Department of the Interior.

From Our Cousin In Germany

Ulrike Gapp visited us in May. Here are the details of her trip.

May 16th. Lenore and Elden Plue and daughter Ellen showed me the city of Detroit. In the morning we went to the Pewabic Pottery and in the afternoon we visited the Detroit Institute of Arts—viewing an exposition “Medici/Michelangelo”. At dinner in an Italian restaurant I also met John—the husband of Ellen—and Robert and Patty Plue.

May 17th. In the morning Elden and I went to the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn. In the afternoon Lenore and Elden brought me to the farm of their son Roger and his wife Susan at Fenton. On the way back home to Westland we made a stop at the cottage of Lenore and Elden in Hamburg.

May 18th. On Sunday Lenore and Elden drove me to Sandusky to Joan Zorn's house. After a potluck dinner at the home of Norma and Louis Zorn, and meeting some of the cousins, there was a Board meeting. Later at Joan's house we had some visitors—her son Michel, his wife Debbie, their children Kristin and Michel; Tim and his wife Rita, their children Amanda and Amelie.

May 19th. In the morning Joan and Norma drove with me to the house of Ruth Berner in Norwalk. Ruth took me to League Elementary School, where she volunteers. In the afternoon we went to Milan. We visited the Bed & Breakfast House (Angel Welcome) owned by a friend of Joan and Norma. She decorated all the rooms with angels and angel motifs. Then we visited Schoepfle Garden in Birmingham.

May 20th. Pearl and Norman Schwochow invited Joan, Norma and me for lunch at their home in Clyde. On the way to Clyde we stopped at Hunt's Corners to see the Church and the Heymann House. On our way back to Sandusky we stopped at the farm of Chase Heyman. Chase Heyman, his daughter Jane Tinker and his son Kurt Heyman showed us the house and the office. In the evening Joan, Norma and Louis drove with me along Lake Erie. I could see Cedar Point.

May 21st. The next morning Joan, Norma and Dorothy, Lou's sister, accompanied me to the Merry-Go-Round Museum in Sandusky. In the afternoon Carol Germond showed me some places in Norwalk. We picked up her granddaughter Alex at the St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran Church. We visited Carol's house and the house of her daughter Beth. After that we visited the old farm—where today her daughter Kathy and family live. In the evening I accompanied Carol to a Tutor Appreciation Night.

May 22nd. Joan, Norma and Carol and I toured a Wildlife Area and Fort Meigs. We traveled on a mule-drawn canal boat on the Miami & Erie Canal (Providence Metro Park at Grand Rapids). On our way back home we drove through the city of Bowling Green.

May 23rd. My last day in Ohio. Joan and Norma showed me the Great Bear Lodge—an indoor water park resort—in Sandusky. After that we shopped at Naturally Country in Norwalk. Joan and I had dinner at Norma and Lou's home. Later in the evening the cousins who accompanied me to the East, Carol Germond, Ruth Berner, Laurel and Duane Heyman, arrived. We had to wait awhile as the train to New York was late.

Charitable Giving

The Heymann Historical Society is a Not-For-Profit corporation established December 15, 1981, dedicated to upholding our family heritage by preserving the Hunt's Corners Church, researching and publishing the family genealogy and preserving family memorabilia.

Please consider reducing your federal income taxes and avoid paying capital gains taxes on the current value of any stock you may wish to transfer to the Heymann Historical Society. Remember that charitable gifts can reduce income taxes, reduce capital gains taxes, and reduce estate taxes. If you have any questions regarding how to transfer your stock to the Heymann Historical Society, please give board member and attorney David Hyman a call and he will be glad to assist you. Office phone (419) 399-4916. Home phone (419) 399-4659.

Naming an organization and giving a life insurance policy is another way of completing your plans to help an organization to continue after your death and makes a nice way to be remembered. A monetary gift in memory of a loved one that has passed away is another option. Also you might consider naming the Heymann Historical Society in your own will. Contributions and memorials may be mailed at any time of the year to: Heymann Historical Society, Kurt Heyman – Treasurer, 2417 Mudbrook Rd, Huron, OH 44839. Phone number (419) 433-6671. (Heymann Historical Society – Federal Tax ID # 34-1365013).

May 24th. At 1:30 a.m. Kathy Smith - daughter of Carol - and Rita Zorn - daughter-in-law of Joan - drove us to the depot at Sandusky. The train traveled via Cleveland, Buffalo, Syracuse and Albany to New York. At 2:50 p.m. we reached Penn Station in New York City. After check-in at our hotel and dinner in a Japanese Restaurant we took a tour on a double-decker bus, for our first impressions of this city.

May 25th. On Sunday morning we took a double-decker bus to Battery Park. From there we took the ferry to the Statue of Liberty and to Ellis Island. We toured Liberty Island; the Museum on Ellis Island and saw a film about immigration. At the Wall of Honour we read the name of Philip William Heymann. Back at Battery Park we saw the sculpture 'The Sphere', which stood in the plaza of the World Trade Center. Wall Street also was on our program - the New York Stock Exchange and the Federal Hall National Monument. We went to Ground Zero, St. Paul's Chapel and Trinity Church. In the evening I wished to go to the Empire State Building to have a panoramic view over the town. But when we arrived at the 86th Floor Observatory there were only clouds and we couldn't see anything.

May 26th. We left New York by train - via Newark and Trenton - to Philadelphia. Our hotel was in the Historic District. We visited Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell Pavilion.

May 27th. We took a Trolley Tour through the town of Philadelphia. In the afternoon we walked to Christ Church and to Betsy Ross House. We attended a theatrical performance about the rise of the first American flag. After dinner in a German restaurant we saw the Lights of Liberty Show.

May 28th. Took the train to Washington. We arrived at 11:30 a.m. at Union Station. In the afternoon we went by metro to the National Zoo. They have two Giant Pandas.

May 29th. Today we took a Trolley Tour through town. First the Old Post Office Tower, then the Ford Theatre, the White House and the National Washington Cathedral. We drove through Georgetown, then to Arlington National Cemetery, where we visited the graves of President John F. Kennedy, his wife Jacqueline and his brother Robert. At the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier we saw the Changing of the Guard. We also saw the Lincoln Memorial, the Vietnam Veterans Memorial and the Korean War Veterans Memorial. After dinner Laurel, Duane and I walked to the Capitol Building, the Washington Monument and to the Thomas Jefferson Memorial.

May 30th. After breakfast I had to say Good-bye to Carol, Ruth, Laurel and Duane. I went by taxi to the Ronald Reagan Airport, then on to Tampa/Florida. Reva June and Bob Nasby showed me around Sarasota, Turtle Beach and Siesta Beach.

May 31st. On Saturday we visited Busch Gardens and later saw a show 'World Rhythms on Ice'. We had dinner at a restaurant with views of zebras and giraffes.

June 1st. On Sunday we visited Myakka River State Park and toured in an airboat on Lake Myakka - we saw some alligators. On our way back to Sarasota we stopped at Casey's Pass on the Gulf of Mexico.

June 2nd. On Monday Reva June and I visited Bernice and John Meek, in Sebring. On our way we stopped at Lake Placid (Town of Murals) and saw some of the paintings.

June 3rd. On Tuesday we met Reva June's cousin - Faith Myers and her husband Wayne. Together we took a boat trip. Later we had dinner at the house of Reva June and Bob. Faith and Wayne and their son Ian joined us. On June 4th, I departed the U.S., and arrived back home on June 5th.

I had such a great time in the United States. Many thanks to all the cousins who made my trip so special and memorable. Danke schön!
