Church at Hunt's Corners Receives Tender, Loving Care

One of the most easily recognized symbols associated with our genealogical society is the Hunt's Corners church. This beloved structure founded in 1858 has undergone many repairs and improvements over the years. As noted in our previous newsletter, the church at Hunt's Corners was in need of a new coat of paint, among other repairs. The Heymann Historical Society Board received bids and voted to proceed with the project so that the work would be completed in time for the annual August reunion of the John George Heymann branch of the family.

Although the finishing touches were applied shortly after the reunion, family members were pleased with the progress they saw on that Sunday's gathering. HHS Board Secretary William Seaman noted that the Great Ohio Bike Race route ran past the church this July. Hundreds of cyclists participated in this event and many took a break from their peddling to photograph the church and read the engraved bricks in the sidewalk in front of the building.

The Changing of the Guard... HHS Newsletter Has New Editor

Greetings cousins! I am thrilled to be the new editor of the HHS newsletter. I would like to thank both Reva June Nasby and Katy Sherlock for the legacy they have left me and I would like to thank the board of the Heymann Historical society for entrusting me with this publication. I look forward to learning more about our family history and sharing that information with you.

I have grown up with this historical organization and admire the people who founded it and dedicate their time and talents to its continuation. Rest assured, this society is in excellent hands.

In many ways I believe that this newsletter is the lifeblood of the society. It connects us across the miles and allows those far from Hunts Corners to feel in touch with our heritage as well as the future endeavors of this unique organization.

Although the format has changed, my desire echoes that of my predecessors... to honor and explore our past, to inform you regarding the present activities of the society, and to plan for the future promulgation of our family genealogy.

Bridging our past, present, and future...

And Now, a Word from Our President

Dear Cousins:

Another year has passed and the work and activities of the Heymann/Heimann Historical Society continue. As I write this we are looking forward to the visit on September 14th of our cousin and Board member from Germany, Ulrike Gapp. Ulrike has been a great help in past Cousins' trips to Europe and has joined us on them. Her interest in, and contributions to, the Society have been substantial and, like her friendship, are much appreciated.

Due to the need to protect the church at Hunt's Corners from the elements, the Board unanimously authorized and accomplished the painting this summer of this important part of our family heritage. While this project was underway, we were advised that the roof will be in need of work in the near future.

Not surprisingly, the income generated by the Society's investments of our family funds has declined a great deal due to the downturn in the national economy. Contributions from family members to help the Society to finish paying for the church painting and to help us to prepare for the upcoming roof work are needed and will be greatly appreciated.

We are always interested in getting to know family members who would like to play an active role in the Society and its activities. If you fall into this category, please do not hesitate to contact any Board member. We would be glad to discuss your ideas and interests. Such participation by "new blood" will help insure that our family organization will continue to exist far into the future so as to preserve our unique ties and history.

As always, we encourage family members to travel to Hunt's Corners and the surrounding area to see where our far flung family first set down its strongest permanent roots in our country. If you would like to tour the church and to talk about the history and future of the Society, let a Board member know ahead of time that you are coming and we will have someone available to meet with you.

Your Cousin:

David A. Hyman, Board President

From Kaltenholzhausen to Hunt's Corners to... Monroe, Michigan...

A short letter to help you get to know one of your relatives

I am Duane A. Heyman (p165), oldest son of Glen F (p165) and Giralda Heyman. I belong to the Philip William Heymann branch of the John George Heymann family. I am married to Laurel Sutton Heyman and we have one daughter Paula D Heyman. We currently live in Monroe, Michigan. I was born in Toledo, Ohio and spent most of my childhood there before moving to a farm near Berkey, Ohio. I spent most summers with my grandparents Glen AB (p164) and Blanche Heyman of Grand Rapids, Ohio.

In 2003 I retired from BASF Corp, Wyandotte Michigan after 25 years as a PhD research chemist. I also worked for Owens-Illinois and Sherwin-Williams Chemicals in Toledo Ohio. In 2002 Laurel retired from Owens Community College, Toledo Ohio after 30 years as a PhD professor of chemistry. Paula is an intellectual property attorney for Baker-Botts in Austin Texas.

After retiring I was asked to join the Heymann Historical Society Board of Trustees and am currently vice president. Laurel, Paula and I made our first trip to Germany in June 1986. Reva June Nasby (p140) suggested that we stop at Kaltenholzhausen. We did stop and were able to find Hilde Schafer (p1250). Although she did not speak English and we only knew a very little German, with the help of a English-German dictionary and a friend of Hilde's who spoke a little English we were able to somewhat communicate. When Hilde, along with other German cousins, visited the US in May 1990 we came to the gathering at Hunt's Corners to visit with her again. Thus began our interest with the John George Heymann reunion and Heymann Historical Society.

When possible we have attended the other gatherings with the German Cousins when they were in the US. We traveled with the Heymann cousins in 2001 and 2006. We spent a few days at Easter 2009 with Ulrike Gapp (board member) and her mother Anni in Burgschwalbach Germany.

Since retiring Laurel and I have done quite a bit of traveling. We take about 2 trips per year out of the country and also travel within the US. Laurel takes many digital photos on our trips, so I spend most of my free time editing her photos into slide shows. I also am a member of a Township Zoning Board of Appeals and do some volunteer work for Habitat for Humanity.

Laurel is an amateur archeologist participating in digs and volunteering at the Monroe County Historical Museum. She is currently president of the Michigan Archeological Society. She is also a member of a community choral group.

2009 Annual Meeting of the Heymann Historical Society

Duane Heyman, Vice President of the Heymann Historical Society, called the meeting to order at 1:55 PM on Sunday, August 2, 2009 at Friendship Hall, Hunt's Corners. Lou Zorn read the minutes from last year's meeting as William Seaman, HHS Secretary, was unable to attend the meeting. The minutes were accepted as read by a motion from Elden Plue which was seconded by Norma Zorn.

Kurt Heyman then gave the Treasurer's Report. He informed those present that the society currently had a cash balance of $4300.00. He reported that the church was being painted and repaired at a cost of $6500.00. The roof of the church will also need to be replaced soon. Approximately $600.00 had been spent on landscaping and $1500.00 was used to publish and distribute the last newsletter. Eleven memorial bricks had been ordered, engraved, and placed in the sidewalk in front of the church. Elden Plue moved to accept the report. Sharon Williams seconded the motion, and the motion was passed.

Duane Heyman informed the family that the terms of several board members were up soon. Lou Zorn moved, and Sharon Williams seconded the motion to close the nominations and re-elect Ulrike Gapp, Kurt Heyman, Matt Heyman, and Albert Horn to the HHS board.

Vice President Heyman initiated a round of applause for the efforts of former newsletter editor Katy Sherlock. He introduced Rachel Parrett who will assume the responsibilities of the newsletter. Rachel spoke briefly about her plans to continue producing two newsletters each year. She also described various objects for sale at the reunion and encouraged family members to consider purchasing these items for their homes or as gifts for other relatives.

Duane Heyman also invited Heymann family members to attend a potluck lunch for German board member Ulrike Gapp at the home of Lou and Norma Zorn on September 14. It was also added that Robert Nix had dropped off a 1931 genealogy book with supplements to the church. Elden Plue moved to adjourn the meeting, and Harry Heymann seconded the motion.

Heymann Historical Society Board Meeting - March 29, 2009

The meeting was called to order at 1:24 PM at the home of Matthew Heyman in Grand Rapids, Ohio. Trustees present at the meeting included David Hyman, Duane Heyman, William Seaman, Kurt Heyman, Chase Heyman, Elden Plue, Matthew Heyman, Carol Germond, Lou Zorn, and Rachel Parrett. Albert Horn Jr and Ulrike Gapp were not in attendance. The minutes of the fall meeting were read by William Seaman. Minor grammatical corrections were made, and David Hyman moved to accept the minutes with corrections. This was seconded by Elden Plue and the motion passed without dissent. The treasurer's report was presented next by Kurt Heyman. The Heymann Historical Society continues to be an efficient steward of the resources entrusted to us. Rachel Parrett moved to accept the treasurer's report, this was seconded by Carol Germond. The motion passed unanimously. At the time of the meeting, 11 new brick orders had been received. William Seaman will determine how many unsold HHS books John Seaman has in storage. Jackie Hyman and Rachel Parrett offered to add signage and price to available HHS gifts in the church.

Old Business included the desire to repaint the church. As of the meeting, the HHS had not received bids from two painters who had been contacted by the Trustees. Rachel Parrett did present a bid from a company whose price was approximately $21,000. The board decided to hold off on any decision until receiving competing bids from the painters. Katy Sherlock will continue to do the website, but not the newsletter. Rachel Parrett tentatively volunteered to take over the post of newsletter editor. William Seaman moved to appoint Rachel Parrett as the editor of the HHS newsletter, this motion was seconded by Lou Zorn. The motion passed quickly and unanimously. The trustees thank Katy Sherlock for all her hard work and efforts for the HHS and the newsletter. Katy's level of expertise will be hard to match. The society still hopes to release a newsletter in October or November of 2009, and will strive to continue to produce newsletters two times per year.

Jackie Hyman presented information on gift items for sale. Since the fall meeting one family book was sold. Jackie is actively looking at Christmas ornaments to sell – which one could order in batches of 100 to 2500. Samples were shown at the meeting, and the consensus was that these should be offered for sale in 2010. Replicas of the stained glass windows in the church are still a work in progress, as well as a new design for a family mug/stein. The board was informed that John Seaman will continue to mow the Friendship Hall lot, and Rudy Smith will continue to mow the church lot. David Hyman moved that Katy Sherlock be given an appropriate gift, from the gift inventory which we currently have, in appreciation of her services for HHS over the years. This gift is to be presented to Katy at the August 2009 reunion/annual meeting. Rachel Parrett seconded the motion. This motion passed without dissent. Elden Plue next moved that the winter meeting be moved to the last Sunday in March of each year. Kurt Heyman seconded the motion, and it passed unanimously. As a reminder the winter 2010 meeting will be held March 28, 2010. The fall meeting of the HHS will be held September 27, 2009 at Hunts Corners. Elden Plue then made a motion to approve all the actions of the board for the past year. This was seconded by William Seaman and it passed without dissent. At 2:53 David Hyman moved to adjourn the meeting. This was seconded by Elden Plue and after no dissent was offered, the meeting was adjourned. ~Respectfully Submitted by William Seaman

German Branch of HHS Visits United States

This September, Ulrike Gapp, our German cousin and member of the Heymann Historical Society Board, traveled from her home in Burgschwalbach across the pond for a two-week trip to see the northeastern United States as well as parts of Michigan and Ohio. While here, Ulrike stayed with Duane and Laurel Heyman at their home in Michigan for a few days. On September 14, Louis and Norma Zorn graciously extended an open invitation to family members to attend a potluck luncheon to welcome Ulrike and allow friends and family to say hello while she was on American soil.

Ulrike has been an integral part of the HHS for many years. Those who have traveled to Germany with the family trips will easily recognize her smiling face. Miss Gapp first encountered her American relatives in May of 1989 when the cousins traveled to Kaltenholzhausen. She made many lasting friendships as a result of this initial meeting and continued build relationships with these and others through correspondence and subsequent meetings when family from the United States traveled to Germany.

This was not Miss Gapp's first sojourn to the U.S.A. She first traveled to America in 1998 to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the Heymann immigration. Ulrike returned in 2003, making this her third visit. Each time she has been in the United States Ulrike has spent time with her Heymann relatives.

While in Germany on the last Cousins' Trip to Europe in 2006 Ulrike greeted everyone upon arrival in Berlin and coordinated a delicious reception dinner and family gathering in Burgschwalbach for our entire group. Miss Gapp also accompanied her American cousins throughout their tours of Germany and several other European countries in 2001 and 2006.

Minutes from the 92nd Annual John George Heymann Reunion

The 92nd annual John George Heymann Reunion was held August 2, 2009 with registration beginning at 9:30 AM at the Friendship Hall, Hunt's Corners. The family history is found in the genealogy book on pages 40 to 618.

Forty-three attended the Hunt's Corners Church service led by Pastor Lloyd Linder. He reminded everyone again of the faith and courage our ancestors had when they left their homes and moved to this country. Jean Scheid played the organ, and $205.00 was collected as the offering.

Pastor Linder gave a blessing for the delicious food at the reunion. A total of 71 cousins attended the reunion. President Catherine Downing called the meeting to order at 1:25 PM. Norma Zorn read the minutes of the 2008 meeting in the absence of Carol Germond, acting Secretary. They were approved as read.

Families gathered from Ontario, Las Vegas, California, Texas, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and Ohio. Those who had traveled the farthest were: Sharon Bowman from Canada, Cynthia Huff from California, Ralph and Nancy Kilpatrick from Las Vegas, and David and Carol Hageman from Texas.

Herb and Beverly Brown joined the family again this year and were made "Honorary Heymanns." Herb's great-grandfather, Charles Kuss, was the first minister of the church, and a brick was placed in the sidewalk in his honor.

Harry C. Heymann, age 85, was the oldest male present; and Ruth Berner, age 84, the oldest female. The youngest male in attendance was Luke Parrett at five and a half months. The youngest female was Lydia Scheid at four years old. The oldest new-lyweds were Bob and Lois Heyman who were married June 21, 2008. Isaiah Scheid lost his fifth tooth at the reunion; he is six years old. We hope he didn't forget to put it under his pillow!

Sharon Williams again presented a vast array of gifts to be used as door prizes. Rachel Parrett had a large table full of the Heymann gifts for purchase by the cousins. The reunion collection was $295.00 and Faith Myers won the 50/50 drawing of $41.00. Deaths and births from the past year were mentioned. The meeting was then turned over to Duane Heyman, Vice President of the HHS, for their agenda. The next reunion will be held on Sunday, August 1, 2010 at Hunt's Corners.
